

SURVEY CAMP

AT

D- PARK , SEC-62, NOIDA

(24th January to 27th January 2017)

The survey camp for Third year students of civil was organized by the department for three days in D park of sector 62 , Noida as a curriculum activity.

The students have utilized their technical skills learnt in their second year and performed well.

The different tasks were given to the groups like finding all the undulations , accessible and inaccessible vertical structure height, Contouring of whole park etc. Students utilized their academician skills incurred in second year with effective handling of eminent instrument in field of surveying , Total Station.

The camp was summed up with the refreshment provided by the college and some of the light and enjoyable moments among friends on the last hour of the last day of camp.